

HOSTED BY HOUSINGWORKS AUSTIN & THE CHDO ROUNDTABLE

“THERE’S NO PLACE LIKE HOME.” As Austin grows, the need for all kinds of homes in all parts of town—a variety of housing options and solutions—is crucial to keeping Austin a vibrant place to live & work. The self-guided tour features 11 affordable homes reflecting a variety of ownership, rental, and supportive & transitional homes. The tour will show affordable housing to be: 1) indistinguishable from market rate; 2) built & managed to a high standard; and, 3) a community asset.

PURCHASE TICKETS AT WWW.HOUSINGWORKSAUSTIN.ORG, OR ON THE DAY OF THE TOUR AT ANY OF THE HOMES FOR CASH OR CHECK ONLY.

SELF-GUIDED TOUR OF CONTEMPORARY AFFORDABLE HOMES

SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 2010
12 NOON – 6:00 P.M.

$10 ADMISSION TO ANY ONE SITE

$25 ADMISSION TO ALL SITES PLUS ONE BOOK OF INFO ON AFFORDABLE HOUSING

VISIT FOR SALE, RENTAL, SUPPORTIVE HOUSING SITES ALL AROUND TOWN

TOUR SITES: Austin Habitat for Humanity—Meadowlakes Subdivision; Austin Travis County Integral Care—Alameda House; American YouthWorks’ Casa Verde Builders- Villita Avenida; Blackland Community Development Corporation—Robert Shaw Village; College Houses, Inc.—The Super Co-op; Foundation Communities—Sierra Ridge; Foundation Communities—Spring Terrace; Green Doors—Glen Oaks Corner; Guadalupe Neighborhood Development Corporation—SOL; Chestnut Neighborhood Revitalization Corporation—Franklin Gardens; Saltillo Lofts.

SPONSORED BY
Bank of America

